- The white-horse rider is called Faithful and True and has the title KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS (Revelation 19:11-16).
- The devil, death, and hell are cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:10-15).
- God will live with his people, wipe away tears, and make all things new (Revelation 21:3-5).
- The river and tree of life are there, and thirsty people are invited to come (Revelation 22:1-5; Revelation 22:17).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What words were written on the white-horse rider's clothes and thigh?
Revelation 19:16

2. What does Revelation 21:4 say God will wipe away?
Revelation 21:4

3. Revelation 21:3-5 says God will be with his people and wipe away their tears. What sad or painful thing would you like to tell God about today?
Revelation 21:3-5

MEMORY VERSE / Revelation 21:4

God promises that death, sorrow, crying, and pain will end because the former things have passed away (Revelation 21:4).

WEB

He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more. The first things have passed away.”

KJV

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

3. Revelation 19
4. Revelation 20
5. Revelation 21
6. Revelation 22

MAIN POINTS

- The woman's waters are peoples and nations, the woman is the great city, and Babylon's judgment is announced (Revelation 17:15-18; Revelation 18:1-24).

- The white-horse rider is called Faithful and True and The Word of God and bears the title KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS (Revelation 19:11-16).

- The devil enters the lake of fire, the dead are judged from opened books, and death and hell are cast into the lake (Revelation 20:10-15).

- God will dwell with his people and wipe away their tears, and the throne speaker says he makes all things new (Revelation 21:3-5).

- The river and tree of life appear, no curse remains, God's servants see his face, and the thirsty are invited to come (Revelation 22:1-5; Revelation 22:17).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Which inscription does Revelation place on the white-horse rider's garment and thigh?
Revelation 19:16

2. According to Revelation 21:4, what does God personally wipe away?
Revelation 21:4

3. Revelation 21:3-5 announces God's dwelling with his people, the end of death and pain, and all things made new. Which detail gives you hope as you bring a present sorrow to God?
Revelation 21:3-5

MEMORY VERSE / Revelation 19:16

The rider on the white horse bears the title KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS on his garment and thigh (Revelation 19:11-16).

WEB

He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, “KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.”

KJV

And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

3. Revelation 19
4. Revelation 20
5. Revelation 21
6. Revelation 22

MAIN POINTS

- The angel identifies the woman's waters as peoples and nations and the woman as the great city; Babylon's judgment follows (Revelation 17:15-18; Revelation 18:1-24).
- The white-horse rider is called Faithful and True and The Word of God, bears the title KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS, and the beast and false prophet enter the lake of fire (Revelation 19:11-21).
- The devil enters the lake of fire, books and the book of life are opened before the dead are judged, and death and hell enter the lake (Revelation 20:10-15).
- God will dwell with his people, wipe away their tears, and end death, sorrow, crying, and pain; the throne speaker says he makes all things new (Revelation 21:3-5).
- The river and tree of life appear, no curse remains, God's servants see his face, and the Spirit and bride invite the thirsty to come (Revelation 22:1-5; Revelation 22:17).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What does the angel say the waters and woman represent, and what do the horns do to the woman (Revelation 17:15-18)?
Revelation 17:15-18

2. How do the kings, merchants, shipmasters, and sailors respond to Babylon's fall, and what details explain each response (Revelation 18:9-19)?
Revelation 18:9-19

3. Revelation 21:3-5 announces that God will dwell with his people, wipe away tears, end death and pain, and make all things new. Without predicting when a present problem will change, how does this passage shape your hope?
Revelation 21:3-5

MEMORY VERSE / Revelation 22:17

The Spirit and the bride invite every hearer and every thirsty person to come and take the water of life freely (Revelation 22:17).

WEB

The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” He who hears, let him say, “Come!” He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely.

KJV

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Revelation 21:3-5

MEMORY VERSE / Revelation 21:3-4

A loud voice announces that God will dwell with his people and wipe away every tear; death, sorrow, crying, and pain will end (Revelation 21:3-4).

WEB

I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with people; and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more. The first things have passed away.”

KJV

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
