MAIN POINTS

- The words delivered through Elijah and Elisha came to pass in royal courts, battlefields, and a besieged city (2 Kings 1:17; 3:20; 7:16-20).

- The LORD's help reached public crises and household needs: water, debt, a dead child, poisoned food, hunger, sickness, and a borrowed tool.

- Naaman turned from anger to obedience and was cleansed, while Gehazi used deception to obtain a reward Elisha had refused (2 Kings 5:10-27).

- At Dothan the LORD revealed horses and chariots of fire, and Elisha directed that the captured Syrians be fed and released (2 Kings 6:15-23).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What does 2 Kings 2 show about Elisha's request for a double portion?
2 Kings 1-8

2. Why did Naaman first reject Elisha's instruction, and what changed his response?
2 Kings 1-8

3. Naaman became angry because Elisha's instruction did not match what he expected, but his servants reasoned with him and he followed it (2 Kings 5:10-14). Where can pride or expectations make it hard for you to receive wise correction and act on a clear instruction?
2 Kings 5:10-14

MEMORY VERSE / 2 Kings 5:13

Naaman's servants approached him while he was angry and leaving. Their question helped him reconsider the simple instruction, and he then dipped seven times in Jordan and was cleansed.

His servants came near and spoke to him, and said, “My father, if the prophet had asked you do some great thing, wouldn’t you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean’?”

KJV

And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?
