MAIN POINTS

- The angel identifies the woman's waters as peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues and the woman as the great city; Babylon's judgment is then announced and described (Revelation 17:15-18; Revelation 18:1-24).

- The white-horse rider is called Faithful and True and The Word of God, bears the title KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS, and the beast and false prophet enter the lake of fire (Revelation 19:11-21).

- The devil enters the lake of fire, books and the book of life are opened before the dead are judged, and death and hell are cast into the lake as the second death (Revelation 20:10-15).

- God will dwell with his people, wipe away their tears, and end death, sorrow, crying, and pain; the one on the throne says he makes all things new (Revelation 21:3-5).

- The river and tree of life appear, no curse remains, God's servants see his face, and the Spirit and bride invite the thirsty to come (Revelation 22:1-5; Revelation 22:17).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What does the angel say the waters and woman represent, and what do the horns do to the woman (Revelation 17:15-18)?
Revelation 17:15-18

2. How do the kings, merchants, shipmasters, and sailors respond to Babylon's fall, and what details explain each response (Revelation 18:9-19)?
Revelation 18:9-19

3. Revelation 21:3-5 announces that God will dwell with his people, wipe away tears, end death, sorrow, crying, and pain, and make all things new. Without assigning a timetable to a present hardship, which promise steadies your hope?
Revelation 21:3-5

MEMORY VERSE / Revelation 21:3-4

A loud voice announces that God will dwell with his people and wipe away every tear; death, sorrow, crying, and pain will end (Revelation 21:3-4).

WEB

I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with people; and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more. The first things have passed away.”

KJV

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
