2. Numbers 27-28
3. Numbers 29-30
4. Numbers 31-32
5. Numbers 33-34
6. Numbers 35-36

MAIN POINTS

- The second census prepared Israel for land divided according to tribal numbers and assigned by lot.
- Moses brought the daughters' case before the LORD and publicly commissioned Joshua at the LORD's command.
- Israel received detailed commands for continual offerings, appointed times, and binding vows.
- Land boundaries, Levite cities, refuge, judgment, and inheritance were ordered before Israel crossed Jordan.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. How did the second census connect people to the coming inheritance?
Numbers 26-36

2. What do Numbers 28 and 29 show about Israel's worship calendar?
Numbers 26-36

3. The eastern tribes pledged to help until the land was subdued. What commitment have you made that still requires you to follow through?
Numbers 26-36

MEMORY VERSE / Numbers 27:16-17

After Moses was told he would see the land and then be gathered to his people, he asked the LORD to appoint someone to lead the congregation.

WEB

"Let Yahweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, who may go out before them, and who may come in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in, that the congregation of Yahweh may not be as sheep which have no shepherd."

KJV

Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep which have no shepherd.
