6. Joseph in Egypt and prison
Genesis 39:1-23

MAIN POINTS

- Revenge can spread the harm.
- Favoritism and jealousy damage a family.
- Doing right does not guarantee a fair outcome.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Distinguish the wrong against Dinah from her brothers' response. Which details show that their retaliation harmed others?
Genesis 34:7, 13, 25-31

2. What effects did Jacob's greater love for Joseph have on the family? Trace the movement from hatred to deceit.
Genesis 37:3-11, 18-35

3. Compare Joseph's responsibilities in Potiphar's house and prison. Which details show the LORD's presence, and which show that doing right did not prevent injustice?
Genesis 39:2-6, 8-12, 19-23

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 35:2-3

Jacob prepares his household to return to Bethel.

WEB

Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments. Let's arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me on the way which I went."

KJV

Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments: And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.
