MAIN POINTS

- Daniel's respectful food proposal shows that conviction and wise engagement can operate together.
- The revelation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream is attributed to divine mercy rather than Daniel's superiority.
- The three men's refusal separates obedience from any guarantee of immediate deliverance.
- The two royal judgments distinguish humbled pride from informed but persistent pride.
- Daniel's administrative integrity and regular prayer remain consistent under hostile scrutiny.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Daniel accepted the king's training but respectfully declined the king's portion. How can someone identify which pressures permit participation and which require a boundary?
Daniel 1:4-7

2. Why does Daniel emphasize that the secret was not revealed because he had more wisdom than other people?
Daniel 2:27-30

3. Daniel's public integrity and private prayer were already established before the decree. Which repeated practice is forming the kind of faithfulness you will need under pressure?
Daniel 1-6

If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

KJV

If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.
