READ IN ORDER

1. Romans 9
2. Romans 10
3. Romans 11-12
4. Romans 13
5. Romans 14
6. Romans 15-16

MAIN POINTS

- Paul says God's word has not failed, God has not cast away His people, a remnant exists by grace, and grafted Gentiles must not boast (Romans 9:6; 11:1-24).

- The word is near: confessing the Lord Jesus, believing God raised Him, and calling on the Lord are joined with salvation, while hearing depends on preaching (Romans 10:8-17).

- Believers should present their bodies to God, renew their minds, think soberly, and exercise differing gifts as members of one body (Romans 12:1-8).

- Genuine love blesses persecutors, seeks peace, refuses revenge, overcomes evil with good, and fulfills the law by doing no harm to a neighbour (Romans 12:9-21; 13:8-10).

- Believers should not despise or judge over food and days; the strong should bear the weak, pursue peace, and receive one another as Christ received them (Romans 14:1-15:7).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. How does Romans 9-10 speak both about God's mercy and about Israel's response?
Romans 9:6-24

2. Why does the olive tree picture give Gentile believers no ground for boasting?
Romans 11:17-24

3. Romans 12:2 calls believers away from conformity to this world and toward transformation by a renewed mind. Which repeated influence most shapes your thinking, and what specific thought or choice could you bring before God for renewal this week?
Romans 12:2

MEMORY VERSE / Romans 12:1

Romans 11 closes with praise for God's unsearchable judgments and ways. Paul then appeals by the mercies of God for believers to present their bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, as their reasonable service (Romans 11:33-36; 12:1).

WEB

Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service.

KJV

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
