READ IN ORDER

1. Genesis 1
2. Genesis 2
3. Genesis 3
4. Genesis 4

MAIN POINTS

- God speaks, and the world takes shape. He makes people in His image and calls everything He has made very good (Genesis 1:1-31).

- God gave people dominion over living things. In Eden, Adam received a garden to tend, a companion, and a clear command to keep (Genesis 1:26-28; Genesis 2:15-24).

- The serpent challenged God's command. Adam and Eve ate the fruit, became ashamed, and hid. When God questioned them, they shifted the blame. God judged them and sent them from Eden (Genesis 3:1-24).

- Cain and Abel brought offerings to God, but Cain's anger ended in murder despite God's warning. God judged Cain and also protected him with a mark. Cain built a city; his descendants kept cattle, made music, and worked with metal, while Lamech boasted of violence (Genesis 4:1-26).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. How do the first three creation days prepare realms that the next three days fill?
Genesis 1:3-25

2. How does the serpent's wording compare with the command God gave Adam?
Genesis 2:16-17

3. Genesis 4 places divine warning between Cain's fallen countenance and Abel's murder. Where are you being given an opportunity to address anger before it becomes harmful action (Genesis 4:5-8)?
Genesis 4:5-8

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 3:15

The LORD announces enmity between the serpent and the woman and between their seed, with a wounded heel and bruised head (Genesis 3:15).

WEB

I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel.”

KJV

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.
