READ IN ORDER

1. Genesis 12
2. Genesis 13
3. Genesis 14-15
4. Genesis 16
5. Genesis 17
6. Genesis 18-19

MAIN POINTS

- The LORD called Abram, and Abram obeyed by departing Haran for Canaan.
- God grounded the covenant in His promises, and counted Abram righteous when Abram believed Him.
- Fear and impatience led Abram and Sarai into choices that harmed Hagar and others.
- The LORD judged Sodom and Gomorrah while mercifully bringing Lot out of the destruction.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. In Egypt, Abram asked Sarai to say she was his sister. What does this show about fear and faith?
Genesis 12-19

2. God called Abram to leave what was familiar. When have you had to trust God through a major change?
Genesis 12-19

3. Abraham left everything familiar to follow God into the unknown. What has God asked you to trust Him with, even when you can't see the outcome?
Genesis 12-19

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 15:5-6

Paul quotes this in Romans 4 and Galatians 3 as the foundation of justification by faith. Abraham was declared righteous not by works but by believing God.

WEB

Yahweh brought him outside, and said, “Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” He said to Abram, “So your offspring will be.” He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.

KJV

And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.
