READ IN ORDER

1. John 13
2. John 14
3. John 15
4. John 16
5. John 17

MAIN POINTS

- Jesus' act of washing feet joins humble service with obedience to the example given by the Lord and Master (John 13:3-17).
- Jesus commanded his disciples to love one another as he loved them, making that love a visible mark of discipleship (John 13:34-35; 15:9-17).
- Jesus identified himself as the way to the Father and promised the abiding, teaching presence of the Holy Ghost (John 14:1-27).
- Branches bear fruit only by abiding in the true vine, and disciples are sent to testify even when the world opposes them (John 15:1-27).
- Jesus prayed that his disciples and future believers would be kept, sanctified through truth, and made one as a witness to the world (John 17:11-23).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Jesus, the Lord and Master, washed the disciples' feet and told them to follow his example. How should that shape the way authority is used (John 13:12-17)?
John 13:12-17

2. Jesus connects love for him with keeping his commandments and promises the Comforter. How do obedience, teaching, remembrance, and peace relate in John 14:15-27?
John 14:15-27

3. Jesus, the Lord and Master, served his disciples and commanded them to love one another as he had loved them. What specific act of service or love would make your discipleship visible this week (John 13:12-17, 34-35)?
John 13:12-17

MEMORY VERSE / John 14:6

Thomas asked how the disciples could know the way after Jesus spoke of going and preparing a place. Jesus answered by identifying himself as the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:1-7).

WEB

Jesus said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me.

KJV

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
