MAIN POINTS

- The LORD called Abram, and Abram obeyed by departing Haran for Canaan.
- God grounded the covenant in His promises, and counted Abram righteous when Abram believed Him.
- Fear and impatience led Abram and Sarai into choices that harmed other people.
- The LORD judged Sodom and Gomorrah while mercifully bringing Lot out of the destruction.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What did God promise through Abram?

Genesis 12:2-3

2. Who was Melchizedek?

Genesis 14:18-20

3. Abraham left everything familiar to follow God into the unknown. What has God asked you to trust Him with, even when you cannot see the outcome?

Genesis 12-19

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 18:14

When things seem impossible, remember, nothing is too hard for God.

WEB

Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes around, and Sarah will have a son."

KJV

Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. In Egypt, Abram asked Sarai to say she was his sister. What does this show about fear and faith?

Genesis 12-19

2. God called Abram to leave what was familiar. When have you had to trust God through a major change?

Genesis 12-19

3. Abraham left everything familiar to follow God into the unknown. What has God asked you to trust Him with, even when you can't see the outcome?

Genesis 12-19

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 12:1-3

This is one of the most important promises in the Bible, through Abraham's line, Jesus would come to bless the whole world.

WEB

Now Yahweh said to Abram, "Leave your country, and your relatives, and your father's house, and go to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you and make your name great. You will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who treats you with contempt. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you."

KJV

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 15:5-6

Paul quotes this in Romans 4 and Galatians 3 as the foundation of justification by faith. Abraham was declared righteous not by works but by believing God.

WEB

Yahweh brought him outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He said to Abram, "So your offspring will be." He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.

KJV

And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.
