MAIN POINTS

- Jesus answered political and resurrection traps, exposed honor-seeking religion that devoured widows' houses, and formed His followers for vigilant prayer, faithful testimony, and leadership through service (Luke 20:20-47; Luke 21:8-19, 34-36; Luke 22:24-27).
- At Passover Jesus gave bread in remembrance of Him and named the cup as the new testament in His blood; on the mount of Olives He prayed earnestly and submitted His will to the Father's (Luke 22:14-20, 39-46).
- The trial sequence repeatedly records no fault or cause of death found by Pilate and Herod, while the crowd's demand still led to crucifixion, death, and a burial observed by the women (Luke 23:1-25, 33-56).
- Luke's resurrection conclusion joins bodily evidence, Christ's opening of Scripture, witness to repentance and remission of sins, promised power from on high, blessing, ascension, worship, and joy (Luke 24:1-53).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What do Jesus' answers to the tribute and resurrection traps reveal about the people questioning Him?

Luke 20:20-40

2. How does Jesus redefine greatness among His followers?

Luke 22:24-27

3. Jesus joined watchfulness with prayer, and Peter's confident promise failed under pressure. Where does honest prayer need to replace self-confidence in your life (Luke 21:34-36; Luke 22:31-46, 54-62)?

Luke 21:34-36

MEMORY VERSE / Luke 22:19-20

At the Passover meal Jesus gave bread in remembrance of Him and called the cup the new testament in His blood (Luke 22:14-20).

WEB

He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

KJV

And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
