| 1. John 13 | 2. John 14 |
| 3. John 15 | 4. John 16 |
| 5. John 17 | |

MAIN POINTS

- Jesus washed his disciples' feet and told them to follow his example of serving (John 13:3-17).
- Jesus told his followers to love one another so people would know they were his disciples (John 13:34-35).
- Jesus is the way to the Father, and he promised that the Holy Ghost would teach his disciples (John 14:6, 26).
- A branch needs the vine, and Jesus' followers need to abide in him to bear fruit (John 15:1-8).
- Jesus prayed that his disciples would be kept in truth and that future believers would be one (John 17:11-23).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. What did Jesus use when He washed His friends' feet (John 13:4-5)?

John 13:4-5

2. Who did Jesus say is the way to the Father (John 14:5-6)?

John 14:5-6

3. Jesus served his disciples and told them to love one another. What loving thing can you do for someone this week (John 13:12-17, 34-35)?

John 13:12-17

MEMORY VERSE / John 14:1

Jesus comforted his disciples as he spoke about going to prepare a place and coming again (John 14:1-3).

|------------|------------|
| 1. John 13 | 2. John 14 |
| 3. John 15 | 4. John 16 |
| 5. John 17 | |

MAIN POINTS

- Jesus' act of washing feet connects humble service with obeying the example given by the Lord and Master (John 13:3-17).
- Jesus commanded the disciples to love one another as he loved them, making that love a visible mark of discipleship (John 13:34-35; 15:9-17).
- Jesus identified himself as the way to the Father and promised the abiding, teaching presence of the Holy Ghost (John 14:1-27).
- Branches bear fruit only by abiding in the true vine, and disciples bear witness even when the world opposes them (John 15:1-27).
- Jesus prayed that his disciples and future believers would be kept, sanctified through truth, and made one (John 17:11-23).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Why did Jesus say the disciples ought to wash one another's feet (John 13:13-15)?

John 13:4-5

2. According to Jesus what limit applies to coming to the Father (John 14:5-6)?

John 14:5-6

3. Jesus, the Lord and Master, served his disciples and told them to love one another as he loved them. How can your service make that love visible this week (John 13:12-17, 34-35)?

John 13:12-17

MEMORY VERSE / John 13:34

After Judas went out, Jesus commanded the disciples to love one another as he had loved them (John 13:30-35).

WEB

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another.

KJV

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

| 1. John 13 | 2. John 14 |
| 3. John 15 | 4. John 16 |
| 5. John 17 | |

MAIN POINTS

- Jesus' act of washing feet joins humble service with obedience to the example given by the Lord and Master (John 13:3-17).
- Jesus commanded his disciples to love one another as he loved them, making that love a visible mark of discipleship (John 13:34-35; 15:9-17).
- Jesus identified himself as the way to the Father and promised the abiding, teaching presence of the Holy Ghost (John 14:1-27).
- Branches bear fruit only by abiding in the true vine, and disciples are sent to testify even when the world opposes them (John 15:1-27).
- Jesus prayed that his disciples and future believers would be kept, sanctified through truth, and made one as a witness to the world (John 17:11-23).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. Jesus, the Lord and Master, washed the disciples' feet and told them to follow his example. How should that shape the way authority is used (John 13:12-17)?

John 13:12-17

2. Jesus connects love for him with keeping his commandments and promises the Comforter. How do obedience, teaching, remembrance, and peace relate in John 14:15-27?

John 14:15-27

3. Jesus connected humble service and mutual love with the identity of his disciples. What specific action would make that identity visible in your relationships this week (John 13:12-17, 34-35)?

John 13:12-17

MEMORY VERSE / John 15:5

Jesus used a vine and branches to teach that his disciples can bear fruit only by abiding in him (John 15:1-8).

WEB

I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me and I in him bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

KJV

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
