MAIN POINTS

- Jews and Gentiles are all under sin, every mouth is accountable to God, and all have sinned (Romans 3:9, 19, 23).
- Righteousness is manifested; those who believe are justified freely by grace through redemption in Christ, apart from deeds of the law, so boasting is excluded (Romans 3:21-28).
- Abraham believed God before circumcision, and his faith was counted for righteousness; the promise is by faith so that it might be by grace (Romans 4:3-16).
- Grace does not authorize continuing in sin; believers are to walk in newness of life, yield themselves to God, and serve righteousness (Romans 6).
- The Spirit gives life, leads God's children, helps their weakness, and intercedes, while nothing created can separate them from God's love in Christ (Romans 8).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. How does Romans move from judging others to the conclusion that both Jews and Gentiles are under sin?
Romans 2:1-11
2. Why does grace not give believers permission to continue in sin?
Romans 6:1-14
3. Romans 8 names tribulation, distress, persecution, famine, peril, sword, powers, and all created things, then says none can separate believers from God's love in Christ. Which pressure makes that assurance hardest for you to trust, and how do Christ's death, resurrection, and intercession shape your response (Romans 8:31-39)?
Romans 8:31-39

MEMORY VERSE / Romans 3:23-24

After showing that both Jews and Gentiles are under sin and that deeds of the law cannot justify anyone, Paul explains that righteousness is manifested. All have sinned, yet those who believe are justified freely by grace through the redemption in Christ Jesus (Romans 3:9, 20-24).
