MAIN POINTS

- God saw the earth's corruption and violence, announced judgment, and instructed Noah to build the ark that preserved his household and living creatures (Genesis 6:11-22).
- Noah did all God commanded while the earth around him was corrupt and filled with violence (Genesis 6:11-22).
- God set the rainbow as the covenant sign that the waters would not again become a flood to destroy all flesh (Genesis 9:8-17).
- The Babel builders sought a city, a tower, and a name so they would not be scattered; the LORD confused their language and scattered them (Genesis 11:1-9).

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

1. The people at Babel united to make a name for themselves instead of filling the earth as God commanded (Genesis 11:4). Where do we see that same pride today?

Genesis 11:4

2. 2 Peter 2:5 later calls Noah a 'preacher of righteousness,' yet only his family entered the ark. What does that teach us about faithfulness?

2 Peter 2:5

3. Noah obeyed God in building the ark while the world around him was corrupt. What does Noah's faithfulness teach us about trusting God when obedience feels lonely?

Genesis 5-11

MEMORY VERSE / Genesis 6:5

Genesis 6:5 describes evil reaching every imagination of the heart continually. This is the Bible's diagnosis of the human heart apart from God's grace.

WEB

Yahweh saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart was continually only evil.

KJV

And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.
